Guests attend golf clinic and play a round with Gore

(Rancho Mirage CA., December 13th 2010,) – Guests and golf enthusiasts at The Westin Mission Hills Spa & Resort polished their skills during a private golf clinic with PGA TOUR® professional Jason Gore. The clinic, held on Friday, December 10th at the Pete Dye driving range, began with breakfast for all and was followed by 45 minutes of golf lessons by Gore. After receiving pointers on their game, the group joined Jason for a round of golf on The Pete Dye Challenge course at The Westin.

The event was part of the ‘Moments’ program by Starwood Preferred Guest; the program allows loyal guests to use their Starpoints to bid on once-in-a-lifetime experiences. Additional guests were invited by The Westin Mission Hills.

“We were thrilled to participate in this event” said Michael Macleod, Director of Sales and Marketing at The Westin Mission Hills. “It was an opportunity for us to thank our loyal guests by providing them with a unique experience that you can’t get anywhere else.”

Jason Gore is a California native and graduate of Pepperdine University where he was part of their NCAA Divisional I Championship team in 1997. Gore turned professional in 1997 and currently plays on the PGA Tour. Amongst his 11 professional wins, Gore was the first place winner of the 84 Lumber Classic in 2005.

Macleod added, “Jason was great to work with and we are thankful that he was able to spend the day with us. His instruction was very helpful and he provided great insight into the world of professional golf.”
